NUMB. 5132

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1745.

Journal of the Combined Army in Bohemia, from the 16th to the 18th of September, N. S.

THE Account we had received of the considerable Loss sustained by the Prussians upon the 12th was confirmed; amongst the kill'd was a Lieutenant-Colonel, called Blumennau. By an intercepted Letter we found, that the Prussians had set Fire to the Suburbs of Neustadt, by the express Order of the King.

Lieutenant-Colonel Trenk sent Advice, that by the Reports of several Deserters which came in the Day before, the Prussian Army was preparing to enter into the Camp lately occupied by the Corps under Winterfeldt, who was advancing towards Braunsau. We had also Accounts from several Quarters, that one of the two Prussian Battalions posted at Schurz was retired from that Place. Lieutenant-Colonel Franchini sent Word, that Orders had been given in the Prussian Army to pick up the Baggage, and to hold themselves in Readiness to march; by which, and the Preparations which he had observed, he judged they would very soon decamp, and that they had just received a Supply of all Sorts of Provisions. The reciprocal Exchange of Prisoners having been settled, 80 Prussian Officers, with 1500 Non-commission'd Officers and private Men, set out for Neu Butow, in order to be exchanged for an equal Number of Austrians and Saxons. The Commissioners, at the same Time, agreed upon the Time for the Ransom of the other Prisoners, not included in the Number above-mentioned.

Upon the 17th our advanced Parties sent Advice, that they perceived a Quantity of Artillery and Baggage belonging to the Prussians, lying off above Jaromitz, and that some of the Tents in their Camp was struck. As the same Things were observed from our Head Quarters at Aujest, Orders were sent to Major-General Hagenbach to take Possession of Plefs, with the Grenadiers under his Command, as soon as that Place should be abandoned by the Enemy. About Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, Lieutenant-Colonel Prince Lobkowitz, Son of the old Field-Marshal, arrived at the Army, with News of the Grand Duke of Tuscany's being elected King of the Romans upon the 13th, at Franckfort; whereupon Prince Charles ordered, that the Sunday following should be set apart for returning Thanks to the Almighty; that Te Deum should be sung under a triple Discharge of all the Artillery and Small-Arms, as well of the Army in general, as the Corps under Hohenemb, Konigsegg, and Nadasti, who were inform'd thereof, as well as the Governors of the Towns of Konigsgratz and Pardubitz. At the same Time, Major-General St. Andre gave an Account of his having taken Possession of the 15th in the Neighbourhood of Nachod. He added, that the Prussians had countermanded building any more Ovens at Nachod; from which he was of Opinion, that they had resolv'd upon abandoning the Kingdom in a little Time. Lieutenant-Colonel Defossi wrote Word from Milerin, that the Prussians had the Day before made a general Forage near Polician, and that the Foragers had been so well covered, and the Number of their Forces so superior to those under him, that he could not possibly interrupt them.

Upon the 18th, Prince Charles was inform'd by General Konigsegg, that besides having taken Possession of Neustadt, which had been evacuated by the Prussians, Count Nadasti had passed the Mettau, and was encamped between Bohullawitz and Krzyn.

Accounts came from Lieutenant-Colonel Franchini, who was then post'd on the Side of Gwalkowiz, that the Prussian Garrison of Schurz was retired from thence to Jaromitz; that on the other Side, the Prussians had thrown several Bridges over the Elbe, between Jaromitz and Hermanize; that he had besides observed a Column of their Troops taking the Road towards Gwalkowiz; that he did not know, whether with Design to forage, or to return to Trautenau; however, that there was a Report that they intended to post a Corps at Trautenau. Our Spies, as well as the Deserters, agreed, that the Prussian Army had not only sent away the greatest Part of the Baggage, but that all the Troops also held themselves in Readiness to quit their Camp that Day. Their Accounts proved true; for we had Advice, that at Three in the Morning the Prussians had abandoned Schmirchitz; and that after the Signal given, by firing a Cannon, their Army having decamped, was marching towards Skalitz, having first abandon'd the Post of Plefs, and even quitted the Town of Jaromitz: Whereupon, our Troops had taken Possession of both these Places, and Detachments had been sent out in Pursuit of the Enemy: For this Purpose also, Lieutenant-Colonel Defossi had Orders to pass the Elbe, and to concert with Lieutenant-Colonel Franchini the proper Measures for falling upon their Rear, for cutting off their Communication with the Country therabouts, and for intercepting their Convoys. The like Instructions were sent to Major-General St. Andre and Col. Trenk. At the same Time the whole Army prepared to march, in order to second the said different Corps of Light Troops, to harass the Enemy in their Retreat, and to drive them entirely out of Bohemia.

The BRITON. No. 5.

Vincit amor Patria.

WHILE the Son of the Pretender is waging War against his Majesty in Scotland, his Agents and Friends are active and busy in promoting his Interest in this Part of the Kingdom, by inventing, and spreading abroad, the grossist Falshoods and Calumnies against his Majesty, and some of the best and most honest of his Servants.

Their Behaviour since the late Miscarriage near Edinburgh, is beyond Measure wicked. Having had the earliest Advice of it, they had Time to take their Measures, and give Orders for executing the infamous Schemes they had formed against the publick Safety.

They began with an impotent Attempt on the Bank of England; the Ruin upon which was carried on chiefly by Perjurs of this Party; and by others, whose near Relations are at this Time in actual Rebellion.

From this Connection between these Persons and the Rebels, there was reason to suspect great Part of the Money drawn out of the Bank was intended for the Service of the Enemy; to whom Gold was more portable, and was easier concealed than Silver.

The prudent Resolution taken by the Bank of England to pay in Silver, was falsly represented by the Malignants as a Sign of Distress; and every Engine was set in Motion by them, that could increase Peoples Fears, or depreciate Credit.

Upon this the Merchants, Traders, and Persons interested in the Publick Funds, very prudently and seasonably took the Alarm, and render'd this wicked Attempt of our Enemies abortive, by unanimously, and of their own Motion, agreeing to make all their Payments, and Receipts, in Bank Bills only.

The Enemies of the Publick, on this Occasion, with uncommon Industry, employed their Emisaries to spread, in every Part of the Town, a Variety of false Reports concerning the Noble Person whose Motto is placed at the Head of this Paper; every one of which was equally groundless and infamous.

These Lies were plainly calculated to increase the general Pannick, and stab Publick Credit; Their Authors built on the Effects they might produce on their first Explosion; they knew they could not gain Credit for many Hours.

The Honour and Honesty of the Noble Person who hath been thus most impudently traduced, are above Suspicion. His Integrity and Zeal for his Majesty, and the Protestant Cause, are universally known; and his Behaviour, in former Times of Danger and Difficulty was such, that should Rebellion and Treason prevail, he would fall an early and certain Victim to the Rebels Cruelty and Revenge; and therefore it is not strange that at their Outset, he should be the first Object of their Malice and Slander.

If the Party should endeavour to palm any more Falshoods of this enormous Magnitude on my Countrymen, let them suspend their Belief for a few Hours, and the Cheat will be surely discover'd.

Falshood and Calumny are all the feeble Props of a bad Cause; they may impose on Mankind for a short Time, but their bad Effects are soon over, and their Inconvenience to their Authors is pertual.

L O N D O N.

They write from Franckfort, that the Ministers of the Electors of Brandenburg and the Palatinate will be summoned to attend at the Coronation, and to perform their Offices of Great Chamberlain and Arch-Treasurer; and in case they do not return, Proceedings will be immediately commenc'd against them in the Dyer.

It may not be amiss to observe, that the Title of Emperor was not anciently taken till the Prince who wore it was crown'd at Rome; and tho' this Journey is now laid aside, yet the other Part of the Custom still prevails; and this Monarch, from the Time of his Election to his Coronation, is only stiled King of Germany, or of the Romans.

The Emperors formerly, when crown'd in Germany, had that Ceremony usually perform'd at Aix la Chapelle, by the Elector of Cologne, for the sake, not only of using the same Crown, but of being placed on the very Throne of Charles the Great; but this Custom is now left off, and the Magistracy of Aix la Chapelle carry the Regalia to that City which the Dyet of Election fixes upon for the Emperors Coronation.

We are inform'd that several General Officers will set out for the North this Day and To-morrow; and that his Excellency Field-Marshal Wade will begin his Journey on Wednesday next, in order to take upon him the Command in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in those Parts.

We are likewise inform'd, that a new Plan either has been, or will be, speedily presented to the Government, for establishing and disciplining a Militia of Cavalry; which it is conceiv'd will be particularly useful in Cases either of sudden Insurrections, or of Foreign Invasions.

Last Saturday Mr. Alderman Hoare was chosen Lord Mayor of this City for the Year ensuing.

Last Week the Mistress of the Publick House near St. George's Fields, known by the Sign of the King and Queen, going to the Necessary, the Seat fell in, and she was lost.

This Day John Blachford, Esq; Alderman of Gipplegate Ward, and Francis Cokayne, Esq; Alderman of Cornhill Ward, the two new Sheriffs, will be sworn into that Office in the Court of Exchequer, before the Custitor Baron of that Court.

Last Saturday died, of an Ulcer in his Kidneys, at his House in Pater-noster Row, Mr. Burrell, an eminent Surgeon.

Yesterday upwards of 80 Soldiers, belonging to the First Regiment of Foot Guards, march'd off the Parade in St. James's Park, to go for Reading in Berkshire, in order to guard the Treasure that is bringing up from Bristol.

Last Saturday 600 of the Dutch Troops that were Quarter'd about Wandsworth, Putney, &c. march'd for Uxbridge, in their Way to the North.

Yesterday died, at his House without Bishopsgate, Mr. Wyley, many Years Deputy of that Ward.

Last Saturday died, at his House in Great St. Helena, Mr. Daniel Cooper, many Years an eminent Upholder in Cornhill.

The following Address and Affiliation of the Lord Archbishop, Lords Lieutenants, Nobility, &c. of the County of York, at a general Meeting held at the Castle o York, the 24th of September, 1745, has been presented to his Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

To accept from your faithful Subjects of this County, the Affiliation enter'd into this Day with a most unan-mous Concurrence, as a Testimony of their Affection to your Majesty's Sacred Person, and to your Royal Family. If the Rebellion in Scotland should continue to make its Progress this Way, our Actions shall make good our Words; and we are determined, under the Blessing of God, and with the Assistance of your Majesty, to use our utmost Efforts, and at the Hazard of our Estates and Lives, to stand up in Defence of our Religion and our Country, and the Preservation of your Majesty. God grant your Majesty a long and an happy Reign over us; and that the Days of it which are to come, may be as full of Peace, as those which are past have been distinguished (with the sincerest Thanks and Gratitude we declare it) by the mildest and most just Administration in the World.

The Association.

Whereas there is now a horrid and unnatural Rebellion, formed and carried on in Scotland by Papists, and other wicked and traitorous Persons, countenanced and supported by the old and inveterate Enemies of our Country, and the Religion and Liberties thereof, the Crowns of France and Spain, in order to dethrone his present Majesty King George, the only rightful and lawful King of these Realms; and having subverted our Religion, Laws and Liberties, (which God forbid) to set upon the Throne a Popish Pretender, a Dependent and a Slave to those tyrannous and corrupted Courts: We the Lord Archbishop of York, Lords Lieutenants, Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of York, whose Names are subscribed to this Writing, and every of us, being of Opinion, that in Times so full of Danger and treasonable Practices as these are, an Union of our Hearts and Forces will be most conducing to his Majesty's Safety, and the publick Good of our Country, do voluntarily and willingly bind ourselves, every one of us to the other jointly and severally, in the Bond of one firm and loyal Society; and do hereby promise, that with our whole Powers, Bodies, Lives, and Estates, we, and every of us, will stand by, and assist each other, in the Support and Defence of his Majesty's Sacred Person and Government; and will withstand, offend and pursue, as well by Force of Arms, as by all other Means, the said Popish Pretender and Traytors, and also all manner of Persons, of what State soever they be, and their Abettors, that shall attempt, act, counsel or consent to any Thing that shall tend to the Harm of his Majesty King George, or of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, or any of their Issue; or to the Subversion of his Majesty's Government. And we do by this Instrument declare, that no one of us shall, for any Respect of Persons or Causes, or for Fear or Reward, separate ourselves from this Association, or fail in the Prosecution thereof during our Lives.

Dated at the Castle of York the 24th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

From the London Gazette.

Whitehall, September 28. The King has been pleased to send Orders to his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, to send over immediately eight Battalions, and also nine Squadrons of the British Troops, from the Army under his Royal Highness's Command, for the Defence and Security of his Majesty's Kingdoms.

Whitehall, September 28. By Letters from Berwick, of the 23d and 24th, we are informed, that about 500 of the Dragoons under Sir John Cope were then there; that some of the Foot had likewise got to that Place, and others were gone for Carlisle, and that La Roque's Regiment of Dutch Troops landed there on the 23d in the Morning. That the Rebels, after the late Action, lay for some Time at Dudingston and Musselburgh, near Edinburgh, and then returned to that City; since which, there were no certain Accounts of their Motions. The following is the most exact List we have as yet received, of the Officers killed and wounded in the late Action.

Colonel Gardner's Dragoons.

Colonel Gardner, killed.

Lieutenant-Colonel Whitney, wounded.

Hamilton's Dragoons.

Lieutenant-Colonel Wright, wounded.

Major Bowles, wounded.

Lafcelles's Foot.

Capt. Stuart, killed.

Ensign Bell, much wounded.

Murray's.

Capt. Leslie, slightly wounded.

Ensign Haldane, dangerously wounded.

Guise's.

Capt. Pointz, dangerously wounded.

Capt. Holwell, killed.

Leigh's.

Capt. Bremer, killed.

Capt. Rogers, killed.

Lieutenant-Colonel Whiteford, slightly wounded.

Besides the above List, there are several Officers Prisoners, whose Names are not yet known.

Whitehall, September 28. By Advices of the 25th, received this Day, the main Body of the Rebels had not moved from Edinburgh on the 24th; and we hear that they are sending out Parties to press Horses.

BETTON's Only True British Oil,

Published by Virtue of the KING's Royal Letters Patent.

WE, Michael and Thomas Betton, Inventors and Patentees of the said only true British Oil, having, since June, 1743, discontinued supplying Mr. Collet with the same, give this publick Notice, That it is now sold Wholesale and Retail, by our special Appointment, by William and Clier Dicey, and Company, at Dr. Barnean's Warehouse in Bow Churchyard, London, where all Merchants, Captains of Ships, Shop-keepers, and others, are desired to apply for the same.

Michael Betton,

Thomas Betton.

This Oil is an effectual Remedy for many Disorders incident to Human Bodies. It is an absolute Cure for all Scorbatick and Rheumatick Diseases, for all old Contusions and Contractions of the Nerves, or contracted and withered Limbs, Strains, Ulcers, old Sores, all fixed and wandering Pains: It dissolves Nodes, cures the Palsy, Lameness, Swellings, Indurations, St. Anthony's Fire, and King's Evil; takes away all Blackness of a Fall or Bruise in an Hour's Time, and allays all Swellings that usually attend such Accidents. It cures all green Wounds and Cuts, if speedily applied. It is an infallible Remedy for the Rickets in Children; is a certain Cure for the Leprosy of ever so long standing, very much helps to knit broken Bones, and is an excellent Antidote against Poison. Inwardly taken it cures Ulcers of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, Consumptions, Phthisick, Coughs, and almost all Disorders of the Breast or Lungs; it also cures Deadness of Adnation; it cures all Surfeits in Cows or Horses; also Hardness or Stoppage in the Maw, the Maggots or Mange in Sheep, &c.

N. B. It will expel Poison, heal the Bite of a Mad Dog, and is an absolute Cure for the most obstinate Itch that has resisted the Force of all other Medicines.

* * Observe, That the Bottles, which contain the said only True British Oil, are sealed with the Arms, as in the Margin, and the Words, (HIS MAJESTY'S PATENT) round it, all others being notorious Counterfeits.

And whereas several mean People have of late made a Trade of Hawking an Oil about the City and Country, from Door to Door, by the Name of the British Oil, which they impose on the credulous Shop-keepers, and others, for the True Sort: We think it our Duty to caution the World against such scandalous Counterfeits, trump'd up in Opposition to our most valuable Oil, and in Contempt of his Majesty's Patent.
